

Send off preschoolers, welcome Kindergarteners, and comfort parents

OOOO

Place a small package of tissues, a few chocolate Hugs, and two small felt hearts (template below) in a treat bag. Include one of the included notes, tied to the outside of the bag.

This is a great gift for Preschool teachers to give parents and students on their last day of preschool (red tags). It is also be a cute way for Kindergarten teachers to send parents on their way (yellow tags).

Parents keep the hugs, tissues, and one of the hearts, while students get to put the other heart in their pocket or desk, so that they feel close to Mom or Dad all day long.

As you send your child off to Kindergarten please Know that I'm thinking of both of you!

These tissues are to dry your tears, your little one is all grown up! The Hugs are for a little extra comfort, we all need a hug every now and then! There are two felt hearts, one is for you to hang onto all day, the other is for your child, to remind them that you are with them, even when you are not near.

Have a great first day of Kindergarten, and thank you for letting me be a part of your family!
